

ATC Day - 10

The enthralling camp ended with a warm and encouraging closing address by the Commanding Officer Colonel AS Mehta. As he said , "...all good things shall come to an end and so does this camp but what matters is what we take back with us." And what we took back was the immense knowledge, the heartfelt friendships and the unforgettable memories.

The PI Staff and the council were honoured for smoothly organising and managing such a big pool of students and catering to their various problems during the camp.

The contingents from DY Patil and Doshi Vakil College bade farewell after the address till the next year....
