

All the heartbeats were automatically synced to the rhythm of progressing footsteps when the cadets of NCC IIT Bombay, smartly dressed in crisp uniforms and adorned with beautiful ceremonials marched their way through the Gymkhana Grounds of IIT Bombay with an innate fire in their eyes and burning patriotism in their hearts.

The grand event began with giving of Guard of Honour to the National flag unfurled by the Director of IIT Bombay and the chief guest for the event Dr. Subhashish Chaudhary. It was followed by the grand parade that was the major attraction of the event.

The parade was led by the Guards of 2 Maharashtra Engineer Regiment IIT Bombay followed by the first-ever NCC Girls Contingent, the NCC boys contingent, the Security Guards Contingent, the KV School band, the KV School Contingent, Campus School Girls Contingent, Campus School Boys Contingent and the Campus School Band.

The parade was followed by the Cultural programme put forward by various students of IIT Bombay, Campus School IITB and Kendriya Vidyalaya.
